

Academic Excellence

Cornelius Early Scholars prepares children for Kindergarten with a foundation for a successful future. Our focus is the whole child: language/ literacy, critical thinking, early math, social skills and emotional well-being. Fostering a joy for learning, confidence and skills necessary for Kindergarten and beyond.

A nonprofit scholarship Christian preschool providing children in need the first steps in their early childhood education

Faith-Based

The goal of Cornelius Early Scholars is decidedly faith-based. In addition to academics, the children learn the foundational elements of the Christian faith and the Gospel.

We believe that this foundation of faith will forge a strength of personal character necessary for long-term success.

Parental Involvement

Cornelius Early Scholars takes a unique approach to early childhood education by educating the parents as well. Kids need their parents or guardians to be involved in their education if they are to be successful. Parenting classes are provided to enhance parenting skills, build confidence, and improve parent-child interaction.

52% of children in poverty are not prepared for Kindergarten

- Cannot recite ABCs or count to 20
- Have not held a book or turned pages
- Cannot hold or use a pencil or scissors

Private preschool is unaffordable

Through private donations, grants and other sources, Cornelius Early Scholars provides full and partial scholarships so that children from all socioeconomic levels can succeed.

Chairman's Statement

"This effort will close gaps in literacy, problem-solving and social-emotional preparedness necessary to begin a successful life journey."

- Rev. David Judge
